HEAD COACH
BETH TORINA
11TH SEASON OVERALL • 7TH SEASON AT LSU

Beth Torina heads into her seventh season at the helm of the LSU softball program after she returned the Tigers to national prominence with two 50-win seasons, four 40-win seasons and four trips to the Women's College World Series in 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017 already to her credit in her short time in Baton Rouge.

Since taking the reins of the program prior to the 2012 season, Torina has now led the Tigers to the pinnacle of the sport more than any other LSU head coach, while becoming the first to lead the team to Oklahoma City in consecutive seasons in program history. She is averaging 45 wins per season in Baton Rouge, leading a ranked side that has featured in the top ten for much of the last three seasons. Along with UCLA, LSU is the only other school with three consecutive trips to the Women's College World Series. Under Torina, the Tigers have played a Top 10 strength of schedule ever year. In 2014, the Tigers had the nation's toughest schedule and in 2017 and 2015, they had the second-toughest schedule.

The 2017 season was another one for the books as the Tigers went to their third-consecutive Women's College World Series. The Tigers hosted their fourth regional under Torina before taking on Florida State in the Tallahassee Super Regional. The Tigers toppled a national seed for the third time in program history on the road in the Super Regional Round.

With the second toughest strength of schedule in the nation in 2017, Torina led the Tigers to their 11th appearance in the SEC Championships and the second-straight under Torina. The season marked the sixth-straight year at least two pitchers have recorded 10 wins, every year since Torina's arrival in Baton Rouge. It was the fourth season that the pitching staff had an ERA below 2.00.

The Tigers earned many honors along the way. It was the second-time in program history that teammates earned First Team All-American honors in Sahvanna Jaquish and Bailey Landry. Jaquish became the first four-time All-American in program history. The Tigers have earned at least one All-American honor for a program-record of nine-straight years.

The 2016 season saw the Tigers return one of the most experienced teams in the country at virtually every position as LSU, beginning and ending the season as the third ranked team in the nation, finished the year with a 52-18 overall record, winning 50 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2006 and 2007.

After earning another regional hosting bid, LSU swept through the Baton Rouge regional earning wins against LIU Brooklyn, McNeese State and Arizona State. The Tigers then went on the road to James Madison, and in dramatic fashion became the 15th team in the super regional era, and fifth team on the road, to drop the first game and go on to win the next two to advance to Oklahoma City. The 2016 WCWS appearance marked the first time in program history that the team earned back-to-back berths at the WCWS. The Tigers played the nation's sixth toughest schedule in 2016 en route to winning 31 games at home.

In the SEC, the Tigers earned series wins over WCWS participants Alabama and Georgia, while closing the conference slate with a pair of sweeps over South Carolina and Arkansas, winning eight of their final nine league games to finish 13-11. It set up the Tigers for a run in the 2016 SEC Softball Tournament, where the team got a walk-off win against Texas A&M in the opener, before earning wins over Kentucky and Tennessee to reach the final.Bianka Bell and Carley Hoover were both named All-SEC. Bell earned first team honors for the second-straight season, while Hoover landed on the second team. LSU had the most representatives on the NFCA All-South Region Team of any other university in the region, getting Bell, Hoover, Sahvanna Jaquish, Sandra Simmons, Kellsi Kloss, Bailey Landry and Allie Walljasper.

Jaquish and Bell were both of LSU's NFCA All-American selections. Jaquish became the third LSU player to be named a three-time All-American, while Bell earned the nod for the second consecutive year.

The 2015 season, one of the greatest seasons in program history, culminated with LSU hosting a Super Regional at Tiger Park for the first time. LSU capped the 2015 season with back-to-back victories over Arizona, which sent the Tigers to the Women's College World Series for the second time under Torina.

The season started off with a 25-game winning streak, which is the best start to a season in the program's history and the longest winning streak in program history. The streak was also the best start to a season in LSU athletics history and second best streak in among any sport at LSU.

The Tigers ascended to its first ever No. 1 ranking during the year, holding the top spot for three weeks en route to the first 50-win season for the group since 2007. During the 2015 season, the Tigers won 21 games against ranked opponents and 38 games at home, both program records.

The team set season records in team batting average, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, runs scored, RBI and total bases in 2015. The pitching staff set a program record for saves and allowed the fewest doubles in program history.

After originally being picked fourth in the preseason, LSU finished that way by the end as it hosted the 2015 SEC Tournament for the first time since the new Tiger Park opened. The Tigers finished the SEC slate with a 15-9 record against league competition, the third time under Torina that an LSU team has won at least 15 league games in a season.

The season awards came in like a tidal wave for the Tigers as a record five LSU players were named NFCA All-Americans with Bianka Bell earning first team honors, Bailey Landry and Sahvanna Jaquish earning second team honors and freshmen Carley Hoover and Allie Walljasper being third team selections.

Bell was one of four first team All-SEC selections along with Hoover, Jaquish and Kellsi Kloss. Landry and A.J. Andrews were second team picks. Hoover and Emily Griggs were named to the SEC All-Freshman Team, while Sandra Simmons landed on the SEC All-Defensive Team.

For the first time since becoming the head coach at LSU, Torina was named the LSWA Louisiana Coach of the Year, while Bell was named the Louisiana Hitter of the Year and Hoover earned the Louisiana Pitcher of the Year.

Torina's third year at the helm proved to be defining in many ways, as the 2014 squad incorporated an influx of youthful talent into an already experienced squad which led to 38 wins and a trip to the NCAA Tucson Regional final, LSU's eighth consecutive trip to the postseason.The Tigers played the second toughest schedule in the country, with 19 wins against teams ranked in the top 25 of the RPI.

The Tigers finished the SEC slate in the tie for sixth place after going 13-11 in the now division-less conference, earning a win in the SEC tournament for the first time since the 2010 season before being sent to Arizona to grab wins against the Wildcats, Louisville and Boston.

Sahvanna Jaquish earned NFCA All-American honors for her outstanding freshman campaign, becoming the fifth player in program history named to the second team list. Jaquish belted a single-season program record 17 home runs and collected a team-best 55 RBI. It was the fifth consecutive year an LSU player was honored as an All-American.

Along with being named to the NFCA All-South Region first team along with Bianka Bell, Jaquish was one of four players to earn All-SEC honors as she was first team, while A.J. Andrews was placed on the second team. Baylee Corbello and Bailey Landry were also selected to the SEC All-Freshman team.

LSU raced out to a 14-1 start in 2013 which was the program's best start to a season since 2007. Playing one of the nation's toughest schedules, the Tigers claimed 12 victories over Top 25 opponents and spent a majority of the season ranked inside the nation's Top 15. It was the LSU's highest win total over ranked opponents dating back to the 2006 season.

LSU returned to the top of the SEC's Western Division and clinched the program's ninth division crown with a three-game sweep over Alabama that featured three one-run victories. The final two games of the series were played in-front of the two-largest crowds in Tiger Park history.

A.J. Andrews and Rachele Fico earned NFCA All-American accolades. The last time LSU had two players garner Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-American status during the same season was 2007.

Fico took home NFCA All-American First-Team honors for the second straight season. She joined Ashlee Ducote and Britni Sneed as the only two NFCA All-American First-Team selections in program history. Fico was a USA Softball Top 25 Player of the Year finalist, a Top 10 finalist for the Senior Class Award and picked up the NFCA's National Player of the Week award on April 30 after two wins during LSU's sweep of Alabama.

Fico's 24 wins in the circle was the highest total for a LSU pitcher since Dani Hofer tallied 24 wins in 2007. She twirled 10 shutouts to rank tied for 10th nationally. The right-hander racked up 232 strikeouts and matched the SEC's single-game record held by Tennessee's Monica Abbott with 22 Ks against Mississippi State.

LSU had five players secure All-SEC accolades with Andrews (First Team), Jacee Blades (Second Team), Bianka Bell (Second Team, Freshmen Team), Fico (Second Team, Team) and Kellsi Kloss (Freshmen Team). Bell became the second player in LSU history to collect the SEC's Freshman of the Year award.

Andrews registered a .353 batting average on 71 hits, the program's highest totals since Kirsten Shortridge's All-American campaign in 2010. Bell connected for 12 home runs, tied for third-most in program history for a single season.

The 2012 WCWS berth was the program's third overall appearance on college softball's biggest stage and program's first since 2004. The Tigers are only one of three teams since the current regional/super regional format that was adopted in 2005 to knock off a pair of seeded teams in No. 8 Texas A&M and No. 9 Missouri on the road to Oklahoma City.

In 2012, Torina guided the LSU pitching staff to a stifling 1.58 staff ERA which tied for second-lowest in the SEC. The 1-2 punch of Rachele Fico and Brittany Mack amassed 36 of LSU's 40 victories during 2012 in the circle.

Fico garnered 20 victories, a stout 1.12 ERA, racked up 221 strikeouts, limited opponents to a .183 batting average and tossed 13 shutouts over 230.1 innings. Her 1.12 ERA and 13 shutouts were fourth and fifth, respectively, in the NCAA rankings.

Mack created and championed the "Geaux Play" program where new or gently used sports equipment was donated at home games to benefit the Miracle League Association at Cypress Mounds. She was named a Lowe's Senior Class Award Top 30 Finalist and the SEC's Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year, the first time a LSU softball player has received that award.

Fico and Mack finished their careers as two of LSU's most decorated hurlers. The duo combined for 134 victories and 1,399 strikeouts during their careers. They are two of the six pitchers in program history to account for 600-plus Ks.

Both Mack (2012) and Fico (2013) went onto become the first overall draft picks in the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) League during consecutive years. Mack played her first season with the USSSA Florida Pride under Torina before the pair was reunited with the Akron Racers in 2013.

Torina spent three seasons with the Pride as an assistant coach (2010) followed by a two-year run as head coach (2011-12). During her tenure, the organization captured the 2012 Ringer Cup trophy awarded to the league's regular season champion and won the 2010 NPF championship. The Pride roster featured multiple Olympians which includes ESPN softball analyst Jessica Mendoza along with Caitlin Lowe and Natasha Watley.

Before joining the LSU program in June 2011, Torina took Florida International of the Sun Belt Conference to new heights. The two-time SBC Coach of the Year led the Golden Panthers to a 129-111 record in four seasons and directed FIU to its first NCAA Tournament victory in 2010.

The 2010 campaign saw the Golden Panthers sweep the SBC postseason awards as Kasey Barrett was the league's Pitcher of the Year, Ashley McClain was tabbed Player of the Year and Brie Rojas garnered Freshman of the Year status.

Individually, Torina coached 10 players to 14 All-SBC selections sparked by Jessy Alfonso and McClain, who have picked up All-SBC First-Team honors during each of the last two seasons. McClain also has collected 2010 and 2011 NFCA All-South Region First-Team accolades.

Torina spent five seasons as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Houston from 2003-07. The Cougars claimed the 2007 Conference USA regular season and tournament titles. One of her most prized recruits, Angel Shamblin, went on to become a two-time C-USA Pitcher of the Year, an NFCA All-South Region selection and a 2008 NFCA All-American. In addition to Shamblin, Torina saw seven UH hurlers receive All-Conference USA accolades during her tenure.

Torina began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Stetson University from 2000-02, leaving her mark on the Hatters' softball program after helping lead the 2001 squad to a share of the regular season Atlantic Sun Conference championship. Torina's pitchers set a quartet of school records, including wins (45), shutouts (20), strikeouts (385) and strikeouts per seven innings (6.70).

Torina earned her B.S. in health sciences and occupational therapy from Florida in 2000. During her playing career with the Gators, she was a member of the 1998 Southeastern Conference regular season championship team as the squad's top pitcher. She posted 60 career wins, which currently ranks tied for fourth in the UF record book. In the classroom, Torina was a GTE Academic All-America and a finalist for the 2000 H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Torina has established an active community service function within the softball program as the Tigers regularly visit hospitals and schools in the Baton Rouge area. She is personally involved in several philanthropic causes highlighted by the program's annual "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event where LSU wears teal jerseys to celebrate survivors and support the cause of spreading ovarian cancer awareness. Torina's mother, Betty Dieter, is a seven-year ovarian cancer survivor.

In 2013, the inaugural "Geaux Teal Ovarian Cancer Walk" was added to the Teal weekend's slate of events. In its initial year, the walk began at Tiger Park and rose close to $15,000 for ovarian cancer research. Torina serves on the committee of women from Baton Rouge to New Orleans with connections to ovarian cancer either as a survivor or lost a family member to the deadly disease. The group promoted "Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month" and received a proclamation from Governor Bobby Jindal during September 2013.

Torina and her husband, Nick, were married in January 2010. The couple has three daughters Taryn, Tatum and Tenley. They currently reside in Baton Rouge.

ASSISTANT COACH
HOWARD DOBSON
7TH SEASON AT LSU

Howard Dobson enters his seventh season as an assistant coach at LSU. He serves as the program's hitting coach and assists with recruiting.

Since helping take the reins of the Tiger offense, the program has seen its offensive numbers surge to new heights. LSU has produced some of the most prolific hitting teams in program history. Fourteen individual single season records, eight individual career records along with twelve offensive season records have been broken since Dobson's arrival in 2012. During his time in Baton Rouge, Dobson's hitters have collected eight All-American awards, seven All-SEC First Team honors and four All-SEC Second Team honors.

In 2017, LSU made a third-consecutive Women's College World Series appearance, Dobson's sixth trip to Oklahoma City in his coaching career. For the third-straight season, the Tigers featured at least one player in double-digit home runs. The Tigers had the second-most hits in the conference, including Bailey Landry with 92 total hits on the year which was also second-best in the SEC.

Three players finished with a batting average of over .300 with Landry hitting a team-high .402 in the 70 games played. She finished with 21 extra-base hits. The Tigers also had four players with a .400 slugging percentage or higher. Sahvanna Jaquish led the team in slugging percentage (.514), RBI (61) and in walks (62). Her 61 RBIs was third among the league.

In 2016, LSU produced the fourth most hits in program history, second most runs scored, fourth most total bases and second most RBIs. The team's patience at the plate also resulted in a program record 315 walks, the most for an LSU team in a single season and 57 more than the previous record. LSU made a second consecutive Women's College World Series appearance, Dobson's fifth trip to Oklahoma City in his coaching career. For the second consecutive season, the Tigers featured multiple hitters with double-digit home runs.

The team set multiple school and SEC records in a 30-8 victory against Louisiana Tech. The line for the night showed LSU with 30 runs scored on 27 hits, including seven home runs and 27 RBIs. The runs scored and home runs in the game tied SEC records, while the 27 hits was also a league record. The Tigers scored 15 runs in the 6th inning, a program record, and collected a program-record 56 total bases during the contest.

The 2015 Tigers set five team statistical records on the way to Dobson's fourth trip to the Women's College World Series. LSU finished the season setting a new team record with a .335 batting average, .523 slugging percentage and .425 on-base percentage, driving in a record 392 RBIs and scoring 428 times. The squad finished two homers shy of tying the record set in 2014 with 63. For the second time in program history, a trio of players recorded 10+ home runs.

Seven of eight LSU starters finished the 2015 year with a batting average above .300, with two nearly breaking a 15-year-old record in the process hitting above .400 in Bianka Bell and Bailey Landry. LSU produced a program record five NFCA All-Americans led by Bell on the first team, with Landry and Sahvanna Jaquish landing on the second team. Bell was named the Louisiana Hitter of the Year becoming the fourth player to win that award ever at LSU. She also earned a spot with Dobson on the USA Softball Senior Women's National Team.

The 2014 team earned the second highest team batting average in program history at .314, while the squad's 65 home runs were the most in a single year in program history. Sahvanna Jaquish hit 17 home runs, a single season program record, on her way to becoming the 16th NFCA All-American in program history. Jaquish was one of seven players to finish the season with a batting average of .300 or better. Jaquish, along with Bianka Bell (NFCA All-South Region first team), A.J. Andrews (All-SEC Second Team, NFCA All-South Region second team), Allison Falcon (NFCA All-South Region second team), Bailey Landry, Tammy Wray and Sandra Simmons each achieved this feat in 2014.

LSU turned in a 65-point improvement in batting average from the 2012 to 2013 season. In 2013, the Tigers had five players with at least a .300 batting average which included All-SEC honorees A.J. Andrews (first team), Bianka Bell (second team) and Jacee Blades (second team). Andrews was the 15th player in program history to notch NFCA All-America status, while Bell garnered the SEC's Freshman of the Year award after her 12 homers tied for third-most in program history for a single season.

Dobson returned to the Women's College World Series for the third time in his coaching career with the Tigers during the 2012 season. Ashley Langoni joined former All-American Leslie Klein (2006) and Rachel Mitchell (2008) as the only players to capture the program's triple crown during a single season.

Dobson has been heavily involved with USA Softball over the last six summers. He served as an assistant coach on the USA Softball Elite Team in 2012 and the USA Softball Women's National Team in 2013. He traveled with Team USA to the World Cup of Softball and the Canadian Open and returned as an assistant coach for the senior national team in the summer of 2014. The National Team was a Silver Medalist in the World Championships in Holland. Dobson returned to the National Team again two years later and helped the team to silver at the Pan American Games and the defending World Champions at the World Championships in Surrey, BC in 2016.

Dobson spent the previous four seasons as the head coach of Southern Miss. During his tenure with the Golden Eagles, he coached seven All-Conference USA performers highlighted by Megan Hill. The four-time All-Conference USA pick set eight offensive program records, including hits (205), RBIs (151), runs scored (148), home runs (48) and total bases (398). She also garnered NFCA All-Midwest First-Team accolades, the program's first recipient since the 2000 season.

Prior to Southern Miss, Dobson served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma for five seasons. He helped the Sooners continue to develop their reputation as not only a Big 12 offensive powerhouse but a national offensive juggernaut.

OU topped the Big 12 in scoring and also ranked among the league's top two in batting average during all five of his seasons in Norman. The Sooners had seven players secure NFCA All-American honors in addition to 15 NFCA All-Midwest Region selections and 20 All-Big 12 honorees. Norrele Dickson, Heather Scaglione and Kristin Vesely racked up multiple NFCA All-America selections under Dobson.

Dobson played an instrumental role as OU made a pair of trips to the Women's College World Series trips in 2003 and 2004. The Sooners also made four NCAA Super Regional runs (2003, 2004, 2005, 2007) during their five consecutive trips to the postseason sparked by a 55-win campaign in 2007, which is tied for third in the OU record books.

Before Oklahoma, Dobson contributed to the establishment of Houston's softball program in 2000. The Orange, Texas, native had players notch 10 All-Conference USA accolades in two seasons fueled by Kristen Glowacz's 2002 C-USA Freshman of the Year award. The 2002 Cougars paced C-USA in hits (480), runs scored (279), slugging percentage (.448), RBIs (244) and home runs (47).

Dobson began his coaching career in the Pelican State with stops at Southeastern Louisiana, McNeese State, Barbe High School and LaGrange High School in Lake Charles. He directed his team at Barbe to a 5A state championship and gained valuable experience working at collegiate skills camps along with coaching on the international level. In the summer of 1999, his international team won the German Open.

A former all-conference performer at Panola College in Carthage, Texas, Dobson went on to finish his collegiate baseball career at McNeese State where he graduated with a degree in health and human performance and English in 1997.

Dobson and his wife, Katharine, have a twelve-year-old son Trip. They live in Baton Rouge.

ASSISTANT COACH
LINDSAY LEFTWICH
7TH SEASON AT LSU

Lindsay Leftwich embarks on her seventh season as an assistant coach at LSU. She is involved with all aspects of the program which include defense, hitting, recruiting, video scouting and camps.

The former Northwestern State standout has been with Beth Torina for every step of her ten-year head coaching career which includes LSU's run to the 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017 Women's College World Series.

In 2017, LSU made a third-consecutive Women's College World Series appearance, Leftwich's fourth trip to Oklahoma City in her coaching career. For the third-straight season, the Tigers featured at least one player in double-digit home runs. The Tigers had the second-most hits in the conference, including Bailey Landry with 92 total hits on the year which was also second-best in the SEC.

Leftwich helped three players finished with a batting average of over .300, including Landry hitting a team-high .402 in the 70 games played. She finished with 21 extra-base hits on the season. The Tigers also had four players with a .400 slugging percentage or higher. Sahvanna Jaquish led the team in slugging percentage (.514), RBI (61) and in walks (62). Her 61 RBIs was third among the league.

In 2016, Leftwich helped five players finish the season hitting over .300 on the season as LSU finished with the fourth most total hits ever, second most runs scored and second most RBIs in a single season. LSU also earned a program-record 315 walks on the year. The Tigers finished with a team on-base percentage of .423, which ranked second all-time in program history, and a .475 slugging percentage, which is tied for third-highest at LSU. For the second consecutive season, the Tigers featured multiple hitters with double-digit home runs.

The team set multiple school and SEC records in a 30-8 victory against Louisiana Tech. The line for the night showed LSU with 30 runs scored on 27 hits, including seven home runs and 27 RBIs. The runs scored and home runs in the game tied SEC records, while the 27 hits was also a league record. The Tigers scored 15 runs in the 6th inning, a program record, and collected a program-record 56 total bases during the contest.

In 2015, LSU produced a second SEC All-Defensive Team member in first baseman Sandra Simmons. Simmons produced a fielding percentage of .970, while catcher Kellsi Kloss led all LSU players with a .988 mark behind the plate for the Tigers. Kloss was named First Team All-SEC and was the first LSU catcher in program history to earn a spot on the All-SEC First Team.

The 2015 Tigers set five team hitting statistical records on the way to Leftwich's second trip to the Women's College World Series. LSU finished the season setting a new team record with a .335 batting average, .523 slugging percentage and .425 on-base percentage, driving in a record 392 RBIs and scoring 428 times. The squad finished two homers shy of tying the record set in 2014 with 63. For the second time in program history, a trio of players recorded 10+ home runs.

In 2014 the team produced its highest fielding percentage under Leftwich, finishing in the top five in the league with a .970 mark. Under her watch, six different players posted defensive averages above led by Sandra Simons who led the team with a .994 average with 309 putouts.

The 2014 team earned the second highest team batting average in program history at .314, while the squad's 65 home runs were the most in a single year in program history. Sahvanna Jaquish hit 17 home runs, a single season program record, on her way to becoming the 16th NFCA All-American in program history.

During the 2013 season, LSU improved its fielding percentage to a .968 ratio to rank fourth on the SEC leaderboard. Sandra Simmons tallied 306 putouts, the sixth-most by a position player in program history. She also amassed a .991 fielding clip which sits in fifth place on LSU's all-time list. The Tigers had five players with at least a .300 batting average which included All-SEC honorees A.J. Andrews (first team), Bianka Bell (second team) and Jacee Blades (second team). Andrews was the 15th player in program history to notch NFCA All-America status, while Bell garnered the SEC's Freshman of the Year award after her 12 homers tied for third-most in program history for a single season.

The Tigers came away with a .964 team fielding percentage in 2012, the fourth-best defensive clip in the SEC. Ashley Langoni totaled 74 putouts and four assists from her left field post as an All-SEC Defensive Team pick. LSU's catching tandem of Morgan Russell and Lauren Houston gunned down a combined 21 base runners attempting to steal. The total equaled the program's second-highest single season mark.

Leftwich's first trip to the Women's College World Series came with the Tigers during the 2012 season. Ashley Langoni joined former All-American Leslie Klein (2006) and Rachel Mitchell (2008) as the only players to capture the program's triple crown during a single season.

Before coming to LSU, Leftwich spent four seasons as Torina's top assistant at Florida International. The Golden Panthers collected 14 All-Sun Belt selections sparked by a sweep of the league's 2010 postseason awards where Kasey Barrett picked up the SBC's Pitcher of the Year, Ashley McClain notched SBC Player of the Year and Brie Rojas secured SBC Freshman of the Year. McClain also came away with National Fastpitch Coaches Association [NFCA] All-South Region First-Team honors in 2010 and 2011.

FIU posted a 38-21 record and claimed the program's second-ever NCAA Tournament bid and first-ever NCAA Tournament victory in 2010. The Golden Panthers improved their win total during three of Leftwich's four seasons, and she aided Torina to a pair of SBC Coach of the Year awards in 2008 and 2010.

Prior to FIU, Leftwich served as a graduate assistant at New Mexico. She was in charge of softball operations and assisted with daily coaching duties during the 2007 season. In 2006, Leftwich worked as the pitching coach at Wichita State where she helped the Shockers compile a 35-23 record.

Leftwich, a native of Houston, Texas, opened her coaching career as a student assistant at Northwestern State. She aided in coaching the offense and catchers in addition to playing an instrumental role in recruiting, fundraising, alumni relations and camps.

Leftwich enjoyed a three-year playing career with the Demons highlighted by NFCA All-Southeast Region, All-Southland Conference and All-Louisiana Second-Team selections in 2002.

NSU racked up a program-record 45 victories en route to a NCAA Tournament berth during the 2002 campaign. Leftwich drove home 44 RBIs, which are currently tied for third-most in program history for a single season, while her 123 assists on the infield paced the Southland Conference.

During her career, Leftwich added five Southland Conference along with a pair of Louisiana Sports Writers Association [LSWA] Hitter of the Week awards. She finished her career ranked fifth in both home runs and RBIs at NSU after a back injury held her out of her senior season.

An excellent student-athlete, Leftwich garnered numerous academic accolades, including Verizon Academic All-District Team recognition in 2002 and 2004 and NFCA Scholar Athlete recognition from 2001-04. In 2005, she earned a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in art and substance abuse prevention.

Director of Operations

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
QUINLAN DUHON
9TH SEASON AT LSU

In 2018, Quinlan Duhon moves into her ninth season as the director of operations for the LSU softball program after her exceptional four-year career from 2005-08. She also served as a student marketing assistant during the 2008-09 academic year following her playing career.

Duhon is responsible for handling all the behind-the-scenes aspects of the softball program which earned its sixth trip to the Women's College World Series in 2017. Her responsibilities include overseeing all team travel, ordering and distributing all team apparel and equipment, organizing recruiting functions and campus visits, supporting camp operations, supervising player academic progress, as well as serving as the program's liaison to the Diamond Backers Booster Club. She also oversees a staff of four student managers.

A four-time LSU Softball letter winner, Duhon has served on the LSU National L Club Board of Directors since 2013. The LSU National L Club is an organization formed to support former LSU varsity athletes, athletic trainers, equipment managers, and cheerleaders.

Duhon has been instrumental in the direction and growth of the team's footprint in the Baton Rouge community by coordinating the season ticket delivery program, assisting in the development of the program's "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event to raise awareness for ovarian cancer and being involved in the scheduling of the team's philanthropy projects.

Duhon has played a major role in keeping Tiger Park as the nation's state-of-the-art softball facility. The team's clubhouse received a complete graphics makeover following its 2012, 2015 and 2016 WCWS appearances. Updated graphics also were installed on the ballpark's concourse and party deck.

During her playing career, Duhon was a part of three NCAA Regional teams highlighted by the 2006 and 2007 Super Regional squads. She scored the walk-off, game-winning run in a 5-4 triumph over Louisiana-Lafayette in the 2006 NCAA Regional championship game.

LSU spent the duration of the 2007 season in the nation's Top 10 and compiled an impressive 55-12 record. The Tigers tallied series victories over both No. 1 Tennessee and No. 2 Alabama during the regular season to win its fourth SEC Western Division crown and fourth SEC Tournament title during the Yvette Girouard era.

Duhon had an outstanding postseason being named to both the NCAA Palo Alto Regional and Tempe Super Regional All-Tournament teams. She cranked three home runs in NCAA play, including a two-run shot as part of a 3-2 win against Cal State Northridge in the NCAA Regional opening round.

As one of three captains for the 2008 team, Duhon posted career-bests in batting average (.333), hits (54), home runs (11), RBIs (38), on-base (.424) and slugging percentage (.605) en route to an All-SEC and All-Louisiana Second-Team honors.

Duhon finished her LSU playing career ranked third with 30 career home runs and is listed among the school's Top 5 in sacrifice flies (13). She finished her career ranked in the school's Top 10 in games played (240), RBIs (128), walks (68), doubles (36), total bases (300) and slugging percentage (.505). She is one of only 11 players in program history to score more than 100 runs and post more than 150 career hits.

The Youngsville, Louisiana, native also was a four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection.

Duhon earned her bachelor's degree in general business from LSU 2008 and her master's degree in sports management in December 2013. She lives in Baton Rouge.

VOLUNTEER COACH
SAHVANNA JAQUISH
1ST SEASON AT LSU

Sahvanna Jaquish is in her first season as the volunteer assistant coach. She recently graduated in December of 2017 after a stellar four-year career for the LSU softball program.

Jaquish became the first player in LSU history and the 33rd in the history of the award to earn All-American honors all four years. In her senior season, she also earned NFCA Division I South Region First Team, All-SEC Second Team, SEC All-Tournament Team, was named to the USA Softball Player of the Year Top 34 Finalist and was a LSWA Player of the Week.

She finished her career as the all-time RBI leader in program history and the only player in program history to record three seasons of 60+ RBI. She ended her career on the NCAA Top 10 RBI list.

In early January, Jaquish was one of two LSU softball players to be named to the USA National Teams. Jaquish was named to the World Championship roster, which is slated to compete at the World Cup of Softball and the 2018 Baseball Softball Confederation (WBSC) Women's World Championship in August of 2018. Jaquish previously played for the Puerto Rico National Softball Team in 2014.

A four-time NFCA Division I South First Team selection, Jaquish finished the 2017 season with a team-high 13 doubles and was number two on the team in total home runs with nine. She drew a team-high 62 walks the 13th most in the NCAA. She also finished in the top 25 in the nation and fourth in the SEC in on-base percentage and led the team at .514, the third highest in school history.

Jaquish is the all-time walks leader in program history with a total of 165. She walked a single-season record 62 times in 2017.

In her prep career, Jaquish was a standout high school player, earning MaxPreps All-American First Team honors in her junior and senior seasons at Redlands East Valley High School in California. She helped her squad to a pair of California state championships. She posted a .548 batting average, 11 home runs and 48 RBI as a senior. She also lettered in volleyball and won travel ball national titles with the Corona Angles and Victory.

The Highland, California native is the daughter of William and Mary Jaquish. She has two siblings that also play softball. Carissa Jaquish played at Notre Dame while Jenna Jaquish competed at Monmouth.

Jaquish graduated with a degree in communication and broadcast journalism.

CHELSEY CHAMBERLAIN
ASSOCIATE SID/ SOFTBALL CONTACT

Chelsey Chamberlain is in her first season with the LSU Tigers and is responsible for the day-to-day operations for the volleyball and softball programs.

Chamberlain comes to Baton Rouge after a four-year stint at the University of New Mexico. For the Lobos, she began working with the volleyball and softball teams before transitioning to women's basketball in June 2015. In 2016, she was promoted to the level of Associate Director, and she began working as the primary media contact for the men's basketball program, the first female to head up the communications efforts for the Lobo men's basketball team. During her time with the Lobos, Chamberlain helped oversee all Lobo social media accounts.

On March 1, 2017, Chamberlain was named the 2017 CoSIDA Rising Star for the University Division. Chamberlain was recognized at the 2017 CoSIDA convention in June.

Chamberlain started her SID career under former CoSIDA Board of Directors member Blake Timm at Pacific University, a Division III school in Forest Grove, Ore. She served as the primary contact for nine sports, including men's and women's soccer, women's basketball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's swimming, softball and women's tennis. Aside from updating Pacific's social media outlets, such as Facebook and Twitter, she also developed the Instagram platform for the Boxers.

Chamberlain graduated with a bachelor's of arts in literature from Pacific University in 2012. During her four years as an undergraduate she worked in the Sports Information office, under Timm, as an office assistant and statistician for football, volleyball and basketball.

While working towards her literature degree and working in the Sports Information office, Chamberlain was also a four-year member of the Pacific softball team. She became one of the most decorated players in Pacific softball history and the program's top slugger. Chamberlain ended her career as a four-time First Team All-Northwest Conference selection and a three-time NFCA All-West Region selection.

Chamberlain holds Pacific's single season home run record (13), career home run record (44), single season RBI record (63) and career RBI record (192). Not only did Chamberlain hit the long ball, she also pitched during her four years, holding a 29-25 record. Chamberlain was selected as Pacific's Outstanding Senior Athlete in 2012.

Born and raised in Grants Pass, Ore., Chamberlain won the softball state championship in 2008 for Grants Pass High School, knocking in the winning run, which went down as the first softball state championship in school history.

MELISSA MOORE SEAL
ASSOCIATE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Melissa Moore, one of the nation's top strength and conditioning coordinators, enters her 11th season at LSU working with the Tiger softball team.

Moore, a native of Enon, La., also coordinates the strength and conditioning of LSU women's tennis team and assists with the Tiger football program.

Moore came to LSU after stints at Georgia Tech and Elon as an assistant strength & conditioning coach. She spent two years at Georgia Tech working with Yellow Jackets' softball and women's tennis programs after a brief stint working with Elon's baseball, men's and women's soccer, women's basketball and track teams.

A graduate of Southern Miss, Moore spent two years working with the football, baseball, men's and women's basketball, soccer, tennis, softball and volleyball programs while working toward her master's degree.

CAROLE WALKER
SENIOR ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR CCACSA & ACADEMIC ADVISOR

Carole Walker serves as a Senior Associate Director in the Cox Communications Center for Student-Athletes and the coordinator for continuing eligibility for all LSU student-athletes. Walker also oversees new student-athlete orientation, scholarship textbook distribution and recruitment as well as supervises two associate directors and an academic advisor.

Walker is the team academic advisor for LSU's women's basketball, soccer and softball programs in addition to coordinating the Summer Academic Success Program for new student-athletes.

Under her supervision, Dee Dee Henderson represented softball as an Academic All-America Third-Team selection in 2007. Former All-American Brittany Mack garnered two Capital One Academic All-District VI honors, Alex Boulet was the recipient of the NCAA Elite 89 Award awarded to the student-athlete with the highest GPA at the 2012 Women's College World Series, while Dylan Supak was a first team CoSIDA Academic All-American and the recipient of the NCAA Elite 90 Award.

Prior to LSU, Walker served as an Athletic Academic Advisor at South Alabama before becoming an Athletic Academic Services Coordinator at Miami.

Walker graduated from Shaw University with a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration and earned her Master's of Education in Higher Education Administration at Auburn. She was a member of the 2005-06 inaugural class for the NCAA Leadership Institute Ethnic Minority Females in addition to being awarded National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) Professional Promise Award in 2002.

PAMELA WORKMAN
ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC TRAINER

Pamela Workman returns to her Alma Mater and enters her sixth season serving as an Associate Athletic Trainer for the LSU softball program.

Workman, a native of Opelousas, La., spent five seasons as an Assistant Athletic Trainer at Southern Miss. There, she spent four seasons with the baseball program which included a trip to the 2009 College World Series and a quartet of NCAA Regionals appearances. She also worked with the football, women's golf, cheer and dance programs during her time with the Golden Eagles.

Prior to joining USM's full-time athletic training program, she served as a graduate assistant working extensively with the football program. The Golden Eagles appeared in back-to-back bowl games and the 2006 Conference USA Championship Game.

Workman received her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2005. Two years later, she completed work on her master's degree in sport administration from Southern Miss.

Workman is certified and a current member of the National Athletic Trainers Association along with the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association.

MATT KARIN
VIDEO COORDINATOR

Matt Karin joined the LSU Softball staff in January of 2017 as the program's first full-time video coordinator. Karin will videotape all of the Tigers' scrimmages and games at different camera angles and develop scouting reports that will assist the LSU coaches in game preparation. He will also work with the staff to develop motivational pieces and other internal projects.

Karin, a Byfield, Massachusetts native, most recently worked as Still Photo Technician Video Intern for both the Atlanta Falcons and the NFL during the 2016 season. Prior to his appointment with the Falcons, he was a student assistant for the Alabama Football team and served as an intern in the Olympic Sports Video Services department from 2013-16.

Karin earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Telecommunications and Film in 2016 from the University of Alabama, where he was named to the Dean's List.

Diamond Backers

LSU DIAMOND BACKERS

The Diamond Backers are the official support group of the LSU softball program. Your membership will support a program that aims to build better student-athletes, leaders and ultimately people. This growth gives LSU softball an opportunity to maintain national prominence, contend for the SEC title, and ultimately, repeat trips to the Women's College World Series. For more information concerning the Diamond Backers, please email Director of Softball Operations Quinlan Duhon at quinlan@lsu.edu.

Salute: 2017 Women's College World Series Team

It was another gritty performance on the road as the Tigers made history again, marking the first time in program history LSU earned back-to-back-to-back trips to the Women's College World Series. The Tigers are one of two teams in the nation to make three-straight WCWS appearances.

For the third consecutive year LSU earned the right to host the opening round of the NCAA Tournament at Tiger Park against UL-Lafayette, McNeese State and Fairfield.

In the team's opener of the 2017 NCAA Baton Rouge Regional, the No. 18 LSU softball team battled to a 2-1 victory over Fairfield. Shemiah Sanchez sent a ball deep to right field to score Emily Griggs and Bailey Landry to give the Tigers a 2-0 lead. Sophomore right-hander Sydney Smith led the Tigers in the circle, allowing one run on three hits.

With the win, the Tigers advanced to the semifinal to face UL-Lafayette. The Tigers fell to the Cajuns 4-2 but regrouped with their backs against the wall. LSU used a seven-run fourth inning to propel the Tigers to a 10-1 win against McNeese in Game 5. With the win, the Tigers advanced to the championship to face UL-Lafayette.

The Tiger offense stayed hot and Carley Hoover fired her second complete game of the day to defeat Cajuns and forced a Game 7 in the regional.

Thanks to a gritty relief performance by Hoover and a two-run blast by Sydney Springfield that helped spark the offense, the Tigers advanced to the NCAA Super Regional round for the sixth time in program history with a 5-1 win over UL-Lafayette Sunday afternoon at Tiger Park in Baton Rouge.

Once again the LSU put their backs against the wall, as the Tigers fell to Florida State in the NCAA Tallahassee Super Regional. Facing the end of their season, the 13th-seeded Tigers regrouped and gained momentum after a one-hit shutout performance by Allie Walljasper. The Tigers scored their lone run in the bottom of the third off an RBI single from Aliyah Andrews to defeat Florida State 1-0 and broke a 36-game win streak by the Seminoles at JoAnne Graf Field. The win forced a deciding game to advance to Oklahoma City.

Thanks to Sahvanna Jaquish, who drove in four runs, and Carley Hoover, who came in relief to hold off No. 4 seed Florida State 6-4, the Tigers advanced to the Women's College World Series for the third-straight season.

Sahvanna Jaquish got LSU a run with her bat, saved a run with a tag at the plate and then Constance Quinn posted what would be the decisive run as LSU opened the Women's College World Series with a 2-1 victory over No. 9 UCLA, moving on to face No. 1 Florida.

LSU's chance to start 2-0 in the Women's College World Series for the first time in six appearances couldn't come to fruition as SEC rival and the tournament's top seed, Florida, scoring a 7-0 win over the Tigers. With the loss, the Tigers moved to the bottom of the bracket, facing elimination.

The Tigers were behind early as No. 3 Oregon took a 2-0 lead. LSU answered right back as the Tigers scored their lone run in the top of the second off a solo shot down the left field line that flew past the foul pole by Shemiah Sanchez, her second homer of the season. But Oregon ended LSU's run in the 2017 Women's College World Series after claiming a 4-1 victory over the Tigers.

Salute: 2016 Women's College World Series Team

It took a gritty performance on the road to secure it, but for the first time in program history LSU earned back-to-back trips to the Women's College World Series, as head coach Beth Torina became the first coach to take the Tigers to the WCWS three times.

For the second consecutive year, LSU opened the postseason as a top-10 seed, earning the right to host the opening round of the NCAA Tournament at Tiger Park against LIU Brooklyn, McNeese State and Arizona State.

In the team's opener of the 2016 NCAA Baton Rouge Regional, the No. 10 LSU softball team produced 10 runs on 15 hits, plating eight runs in the final three frames of the game to breeze past the LIU Brooklyn Blackbirds 10-2 in six innings at Tiger Park.

With the winner advancing to Sunday's regional title game, the No. 10 LSU softball team took control early and never looked back in earning a 4-1 win over the McNeese State Cowgirls Saturday afternoon at Tiger Park, claiming a spot on the final day for the second consecutive year.

Thanks to a pair of runs midway through and the seventh combined shutout in LSU postseason history, the No. 10 LSU softball team advanced to the NCAA Super Regional round for the fifth time in program history with a 2-0 win over the Arizona State Sun Devils Sunday afternoon at Tiger Park in Baton Rouge.

The No. 10 LSU softball team took the lead twice, but every time the James Madison Dukes rallied back and in the end got a walk-off bases-loaded single with two outs in the seventh to take the 2016 NCAA Harrisonburg Super Regional opener 3-2 at Veterans Memorial Stadium.

Facing the end of their season, LSU got a seven-inning, five-hit shutout in the circle from Allie Walljasper and scored both of its runs in the fourth inning to earn a 2-0 win over James Madison to force a winner-take-all game three.

After pulling out a 2-0 win earlier on the day, the Tigers opened the scoring and held on for dear life by weathering late rallies to earn a 3-2 win over JMU in game two to win the 2016 NCAA Harrisonburg Super Regional and qualify for the 2016 Women's College World Series for the second consecutive year for the first time in program history.

In the final game of what was a postponed second session of the 2016 Women's College World Series, the LSU softball team and Michigan Wolverines were locked in a pitcher's duel until a two-RBI hit by Michigan broke the scoreless draw in the sixth and the Tigers would not be able to counter in falling 2-0.

For the second time in as many years, the LSU softball team faced an elimination game against the Alabama Crimson Tide, and for the second time the Tigers earned the victory by jumping out to a big lead and locking down when it counted in a 6-4 win.

A pair of home runs from Bianka Bell, as well as a five-strikeout complete game three-hitter from Carley Hoover in the circle, propelled the LSU softball team to the 2016 Women's College World Series semifinals with a 4-1 win over the No. 19 Georgia Bulldogs.

A three-run home run that tied the game at 3-3 in the bottom of the third helped lift the spirits of the LSU softball team, but in the end the relentless offense of the Oklahoma Sooners proved to be too much as they scored in all but three innings in a 7-3 victory to end LSU's run in the 2016 Women's College World Series.

Salute: 2015 Women's College World Series Team

Three years after embarking on her first season as head coach and leading LSU back to the Women's College World Series, head coach Beth Torina wasted little time in getting the team back as in 2015 the Tigers made their return and finished third overall for the third time in four total trips to OKlahoma City.

LSU opened postseason play in Tiger Park, hosting a regional that featured Arizona State, Nebraska and Texas Southern.

The Tigers opened the tournament by tying its season high for runs scored on the season with a 15-0 win over Texas Southern in five innings. LSU produced 11 hits and Kelsee Selman went the distance, improving to 9-0 on the year with her sixth shutout of the season.

In the winner's game, LSU squared off with the Sun Devils and in an ultra-competetive tilt a single run was scored between the two as LSU fell to ASU to fall into the elimination game later that night.

That game wound up being a rematch against a Nebraska team that LSU had already beaten earlier in the season 10-2 in five innings in California at the beginning of the year. Instead of a rehash of that previous contest, the Huskers were up for the fight as LSU and Nebraska each scored in the fourth inning and forced extras, where LSU got two runs in the 10th and held on in the bottom half of that same inning to move on to Sunday with a 3-2 win.

Needing two wins to continue playing, LSU opened the final day of the event with a 5-0 win over Arizona State to force a winner-take-all finale that lived up to the billing, with a game going to extras for the second straight day.

After taking the lead and watching it slip, and rallying back to tie it up late, LSU earned the final at-bat and got a walkoff game-winning hit from Bianka Bell to send LSU to the super regional round.

The super regional was another rematch for LSU, hosting Arizona, another team LSU had beaten earlier in the season in California.

After needing to use all of its fight the previous week, LSU didn't let the visiting Wildcats have any momentum from the start, getting a one-hit shutout from Carley Hoover in the circle while scoring all eight of its runs in the first three innings to win 8-0 in five.

The next day, the Tigers once again brought the bats, scoring 10 runs to put enough distance between themselves and Arizona, booking a place in OKC the very next week.

The opening round game allowed LSU to enact a bit of revenge from the the final week of the regular season, matching up with Auburn who was making their first trip in program history. The Tigers scored five runs in the first three innings and Hoover pitched the complete game, allowing just one run in a 6-1 victory over the Tigers.

Unfortunately LSU ran into a hot Florida team the next day and was held to five hits, falling 4-0 to fall into the elimination bracket.

The final game of the day pitted LSU against Alabama in a classic SEC rivalry contest, one that LSU began by scoring all five of its runs in the first two innings, while getting six strong innings from Allie Walljasper and an inning from Hoover to hold on for a 5-3 win, eliminating the Crimson Tide.

Needing to beat Michigan twice, LSU started out well, going up 3-1 before the Wolverines tied the game in the bottom of the fourth. Unfortunately, LSU would not score again as Michigan plated three in the bottom of the sixth to take the lead, ending LSU's season in the very next inning to defaeat the Tigers 6-3.

Salute: 2012 Women's College World Series Team

When Beth Torina was introduced as LSU softball's fifth head coach in June 2012, she vowed to win in everything the program did and return to the Tigers to national prominence.

Torina accomplished just that during her inaugural campaign as LSU returned to Oklahoma City and the Women's College World Series.

Led by eight seniors, the Tigers knocked off two seeded teams and future SEC rivals in No. 8 Texas A&M and No. 9 Missouri along the way.

To get back to softball's biggest stage, LSU embraced the mantra of "Whatever It Takes". Torina gave puzzle pieces to the players ranging from academic success to key performances in practices and games throughout the season. Each piece had different people that had the 'it' factor, and the puzzle was completed leading into LSU's trip to the NCAA postseason.

The Tigers started NCAA Regional play with a dramatic 1-0 victory over Texas State. Juliana Santos capped a three-hit barrage in the seventh inning with a walkoff RBI-single.

Rachele Fico fired her second straight two-hit shutout in as many days as LSU stayed in the winner's bracket with a 2-0 triumph over Texas A&M. In the NCAA College Station Regional championship, Brittany Mack put together a masterful performance in a 2-1 win over the Aggies. LSU scored its two runs on a pinch-hit sacrifice fly from Kailey McCasland and a Dylan Supak infield single that was followed by a A&M throwing error.

The Tigers opened up the NCAA Columbia Super Regional and exploded for a 6-1 victory by roughing up Missouri All-American hurler Chelsea Thomas. Allison Falcon led the way with a 2-for-3 effort and three RBIs.

After Missouri claimed a 5-1 game two win in 12 innings and overcame a career-best 17 strikeouts from Mack, LSU bounced back in the deciding contest aided by Simone Heyward's first extra base hit of the season. The timely three-run double came in the third inning and erased a 1-0 deficit.

Fico retired 12 of the final 14 Missouri hitters she faced, and Ashley Langoni squeezed the games last out with a runner on second base.

LSU carried the momentum into its opening game of the WCWS and fired out to a 2-0 lead on No. 1 California on a two-run, second inning single from Morgan Russell. The Golden Bears charged back with five unanswered runs highlighted by a three-run sixth inning.

Facing elimination in a 0-0 contest versus No. 19 South Florida, Andrews used alert base running to score the game's only run on a sacrifice popout in the sixth inning.

On a 1-0 offering, Falcon popped up to shortstop Kourtney Salvarola. Since Salvarola was playing drawn in with the bases loaded, Andrews tagged from the third base bag and scampered home. Salvarola's throw was offline which enabled Andrews to slide around the tag attempt head-first safely into home plate. Mack dealt a two-hit shutout to preserve the 1-0 win.

Defending national champion and No. 3 Arizona State ended LSU's run with a 6-0 win. The session attendance was 9,310, the largest number of fans to attend a softball game in program history.

Salute: 2004 Women's College World Series Team

For Yvette Girouard and the LSU softball program, the second run to the Women's College World Series was filled with as much joy, drama and excitement as the original.

Like in 2001, the Tigers accomplished the SEC triple crown and claimed the SEC Western Division, Regular Season and Tournament championships.

LSU also won a heart-stopping 13-inning affair and nearly pulled off an impossible feat at the WCWS.

After starting the 2004 campaign with a 5-3 record, the Tigers strung together a 17-game winning streak. LSU continued its climb up the polls sparked by a three-game sweep at No. 7 Alabama to end March and checked in with a No. 2 ranking heading into postseason play.

A trio of wins over Alabama, Auburn and Georgia, all ranked among the Top 15, allowed the Tigers to win their third SEC Tournament in five years.

Unlike 2001, LSU's quest to Oklahoma City didn't start inside the friendly confines of Tiger Park. Instead, the Tigers were shipped to Waco, Texas and Baylor University for the NCAA Regionals.

After wins over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi and Seton Hall, LSU found itself down 3-0 to Baylor after two innings. Camille Harris kickstarted a three-run third inning with a solo home run to left field. Three batters later, future All-American Leslie Klein belted a two-run triple down the right field line to even the score at 3-3.

The Tigers exploded for a quartet of runs in the 10th inning. Stephanie Hill and Lauren Delahoussaye provided RBIs coupled with a Baylor error and wild pitch.

The next day against Illinois, Julie Wiese jumpstarted LSU with a solo shot in the second inning followed by RBI hits from Delahoussaye in the third and fifth innings.

That would be more than enough run support for two-time All-American Kristin Schmidt. She was touched up for only an unearned run on three hits to go along with nine strikeouts as the Tigers raced past the Fighting Illini 4-1 to return to the WCWS.

Another Big 10 team, No. 6 Michigan, would bite the dust in LSU's opening game in Oklahoma City. After 11 scoreless frames, the Wolverines took a 2-0 advantage to open the 12th inning. In the home half, the Tigers used an RBI-single by Leigh Ann Danos and a passed ball to knot the score at 2-2.

LSU won the game in the 13th on a Harris infield single. After two throwing errors, Sara Fitzgerald crossed home for the game-winning run. In the circle, Schmidt fired all 13 innings and tallied 13 strikeouts.

Following a 2-0 setback to No. 2 UCLA, rain altered the WCWS schedule. The Tigers were faced with the task of winning three games in one day to advance to the championship game.

A Fitzgerald RBI-single in the fourth inning proved to be the game winner as LSU edged No. 4 Florida State 2-1 to start the day. Schmidt provided another 13 strikeouts and surrendered only one run on four hits.

The Tigers fought off elimination for a second time and erased an early 1-0 deficit against No. 5 California. Klein opened the second inning with a solo home run, Harris followed with a two-out, two-run double in the third and Delahoussaye tacked on an insurance run with an RBI-double during the sixth.

Schmidt added eight strikeouts and pitched around trouble to close out the 4-1 victory for her third win of the WCWS.

LSU was poised to finish out the hat trick and carried a 1-0 lead into the fifth inning. Seven outs away, the Golden Bears struck for a quartet of runs to take the win.

"What more could you ask for from your team," Girouard said after the game. "I told the team before we got off the bus this morning that we weren't leaving the park until they turned out the lights on us tonight and we are doing just that. Unfortunately, we came up just a little short.

"This team did everything my staff asked of them. They played with total heart. Kristin Schmidt pitched her heart out and this team never died. If I have ever coached a team that deserved to go to the national championship game, then it is certainly this group of girls."

Salute: 2001 Women's College World Series Team

Yvette Girouard's first season at LSU ended in storybook fashion as the Tigers racked up a school record 59 wins and qualified for the program's first Women's College World Series.

Yvette Girouard's first season at LSU ended in storybook fashion as the Tigers racked up a school record 59 wins and qualified for the program's first Women's College World Series.

LSU also completed the SEC triple crown for the first time en route to the SEC Western Division, Regular Season and Tournament championships.

After splitting a doubleheader at No. 21 Louisiana-Lafayette on April 18, the Tigers reeled off 12 consecutive victories to climb up to No. 3 in the national rankings.

Girouard refocused her team after a 7-3 setback at Auburn in the regular season finale and fired back with a 6-0 win over Auburn to open the SEC Tournament.

Three days later, All-American Stephanie Hastings belted a solo home run that stayed just inside the left field foul pole to open the SEC Championship against No. 22 South Carolina.

The first-inning blast coupled with a stellar effort from SEC Player of the Year Britni Sneed in the circle were more than enough to avenge a 1-0 setback to the Gamecocks from the season before.

Sneed hurled a three-hitter to complete her undefeated SEC season and recorded a tournament-record 11 strikeouts against zero walks to secure the MVP honor and 1-0 triumph.

LSU opened NCAA Regional action with victories over Cornell, Penn State and No. 9 Arizona State before facing No. 19 Louisiana-Lafayette in the finals.

he Tigers broke through for a pair of runs in the third inning as Hastings and future All-American Trena Peel provided RBIs.

An Alana Addison homer brought ULL within 2-1, but Sneed shut the door on the Cajuns retiring 12 of the final 15 batters highlighted by a strikeout of Heather Bertrand to vault LSU to the Women's College World Series.

Following a 2-1 hard-fought, extra inning loss to No. 4 Stanford, the Tigers bounced back behind a Julie Wiese two-run homer to dismiss No. 15 Iowa and set up an elimination tussle with No. 5 Oklahoma, the defending national champion.

The teams battled deep into the night before LSU emerged with a gritty 2-1 triumph in the 13th inning. An errant throw off an Ashley Lewis ground ball allowed Jennifer Schuelke to cross the plate for the game winning run.

Sneed willed her way to an impressive 18 strikeouts, a program single-game record. She escaped multiple jams during extra innings, none more impressive than back-to-back Ks to get out of a bases loaded situation in the 10th.

The game was viewed by 1.57 million fans, a softball record at the time according to NCAA Productions.

RATED FIFTH-BEST BUILDING OF LSU ARCHITECTURE

"Best seen at night, when its gables and overhang seem to brighten into shimmering white sails winging through cool ebony skies, the softball stadium shows that LSU can come up with a building that plays to something other than the local taste for plantation imagery and Greco-Roman bric-a-brac. Welling out of a hillock in a way that suggests strong shoulders on the brink of swinging a home run, the softball stadium evidences a modest freshness that brings a smile and savors of popcorn and hot dogs."

TIGERS WORLDWIDE

LSU players have made their mark on the international level since the program restarted in 1997, playing for various national teams across the globe. Current LSU assistant coach Howard Dobson has served as an assistant coach for Team USA, while players such as Sahvanna Jaquish and Shemiah Sanchez have suited up for Puerto Rico. Freshman Amanda Doyle competed on the U.S. Women's National Team Training squad, vying for a spot on the JWNT. In 2018, Jaquish was named to the Women's National team roster, while Carley Hoover was named to the Japan All-Star series roster. Both will compete for Team USA this summer. The sport of softball will return to the Olympics in 2020 in Japan.

MODELS OF EXCELLENCE

LSU, in particular the efforts of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, is one of eight colleges and universities nationwide that was honored by University Business magazine in its Spring 2016 Models of Excellence recognition program. The Models of Excellence program recognizes innovative approaches to encouraging and nurturing student success on campus. "For student-athletes, pressure bears down from all angles - from classroom expectations to media scrutiny," says University Business senior editor Tim Goral. "LSU realizes the unique challenges this population faces, and offers a holistic solution that helps this group succeed outside of game day."

Cox Communications Academic Center

VALUES

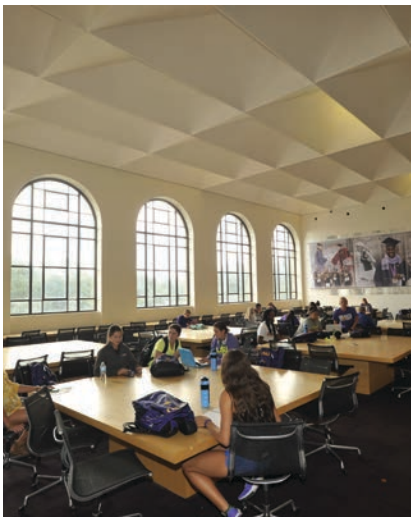
"ENTER TO LEARN, LEAVE TO SERVE"

STUDY AREA

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 12 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

BO CAMPBELL AUDITORIUM

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used throughout the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

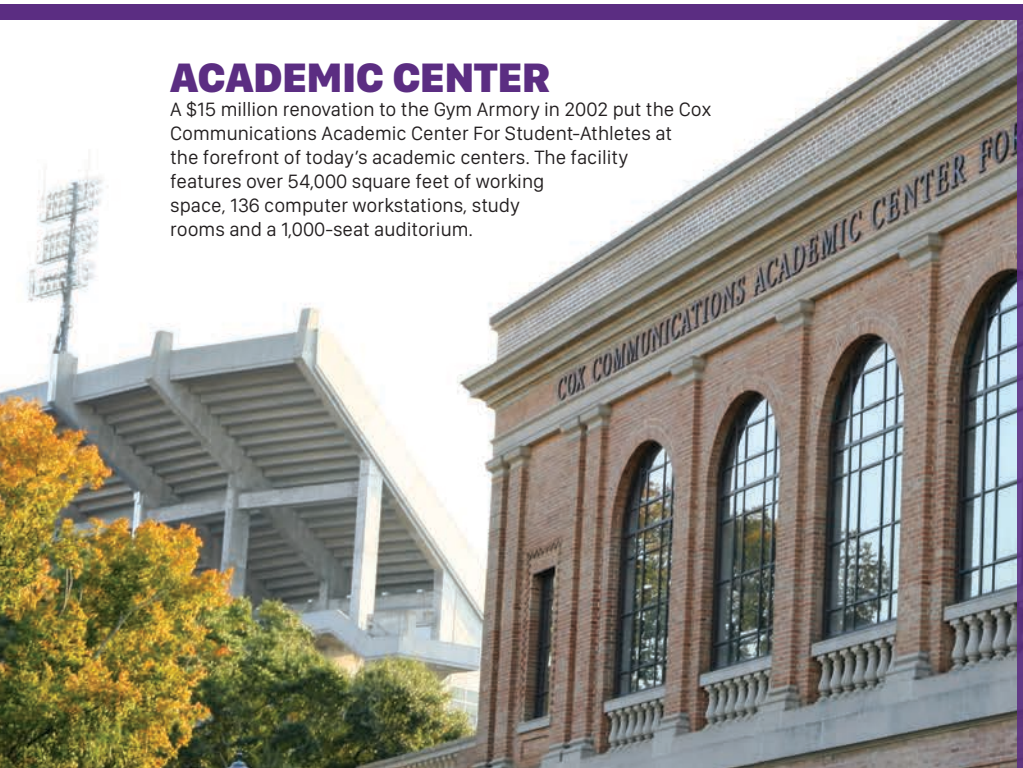


THE LIBRARY

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as a group.

ACADEMIC CENTER

A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory in 2002 put the Cox Communications Academic Center For Student-Athletes at the forefront of today's academic centers. The facility features over 54,000 square feet of working space, 136 computer workstations, study rooms and a 1,000-seat auditorium.



VISION

To be the premier provider of transformative student-athlete support services.

MISSION

To challenge our student-athletes to achieve their highest level of intellectual and personal development.

GOALS

- Graduate our Student-Athletes
- Prepare Student-Athletes for Life after LSU
- Promote and Preserve Academic Integrity Through Education and Example
- Nurture the Personal Well-Being and Professional Aspirations of Our Team

LSU GREATS

The following 11 individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus and 34 Sylvia Fowles. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman, the No. 19 for Ben McDonald, the No. 36 for Eddy Furniss and the No. 12 for Todd Walker. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010. Walker joined the prestigious list in April 2017.

50 BOB PETTIT

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 PETE MARAVICH

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 BILLY CANNON

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Billy Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 SHAQUILLE O'NEAL

Shaquille O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 SKIP BERTMAN

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Skip Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

40 RUDY MACKLIN

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single-game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

ABOUT LSU RETIRED JERSEYS

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, Furniss, Walker, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 TOMMY CASANOVA

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 BEN MCDONALD

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

33 SEIMONE AUGUSTUS

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year, and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also led the United States to Olympic gold medals at the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Games.

36 EDDY FURNISS

Eddy Furniss enjoyed one of the best four-season stretches (1995-98) in college baseball history. Furniss is still the Southeastern Conference all-time leader in hits (352), home runs (80), RBI (308), doubles (87) and total bases (689). He was selected in the fourth round of the 1998 Major League Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates and played five seasons in the minor leagues before retiring to concentrate on a career in medicine.

12 TODD WALKER

Todd Walker, a two-time first-team All-American, led the Tigers to the national championship in 1993, earning the College World Series Most Outstanding Player award. Known for his incredible work ethic, Walker was a two-time finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, a first-team All-SEC member three years and the SEC Player of the Year in 1993. He posted a .396 career batting average, and he completed his collegiate career as the SEC all-time leader in hits (310), runs (234), RBI (246) and total bases (557). Walker was the eighth overall selection in the 1994 Major League Baseball Draft and enjoyed a 12-year career.

34 SYLVIA FOWLES

Fowles was a three-time all-american for the LSU women's basketball team and is the second LSU women's basketball player to have her jersey retired. Fowles led the Lady Tigers to four-straight Final Four appearances and finished her career with 2,234 career points, just one of five Lady Tigers to reach more than 2,000 points. She also is the programs leading rebounder, tallying 1,570 rebounds in her four years. Fowles went on to play in the WNBA and currently plays for the Minnesota Lynx. She earned MVP honors in 2015 and 2017 and earned WNBA Defensive Player of the Year for the third time in 2016.

SHAQUILLE O'NEAL
A four-time NBA champion and 15-time All-Star, Shaquille O'Neal was one of the most dominant centers in NBA history. He announced his retirement from the NBA in June 2010 after a brilliant Hall of Fame career and has since become a television analyst on TNT. One of the most quotable figures on the planet, O'Neal earned his bachelor's degree from LSU in December 2000. In 2011, he penned his own biography, "Shaq Uncut, My Story," and then received his doctorate degree from Florida's Barry University in May 2012.

LOLO JONES
A three-time national champion hurdler at LSU, Lolo Jones continues to take the sporting world by storm. Jones became an inspirational figure as a two-time World Indoor Champion and the world record holder in the 60-meter hurdles with a time of 7.72. She competed in both the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Olympic Games and became the first LSU athlete to ever grace the cover of Time Magazine in July 2012. A 2005 graduate of LSU, Jones is now a two-sport star. She was named to the U.S. National Bobsled Team that went on to claim gold at the 2013 FIBT World Championships and compete at the 2014 Winter Olympics.

CAMPUS LIFE

LSU's Memorial Tower (top main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (above, left). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended. Students often enjoy concerts on the LSU Parade Ground (above, right).

LSU

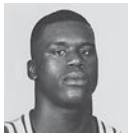
Location: Baton Rouge, La.
Founded: January 2, 1860
Enrollment: 31,527
President: Dr. F. King Alexander
Major Fields for Bachelor's Degrees: 72
Major Fields for Master's Degrees: 72
Major Fields for Doctoral Degrees: 54

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 156-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. The focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Why LSU?

"LSU is my home. It was a place where I made my name and a place where I was able to come here and have fun. It was the best three years of my life. While you are here, have fun and become a master of time management. You need to do what you have to do to make it. Work hard. I have been blessed. Baton Rouge is the place that helped me become who I am. I will never forget this place."



Shaquille O'Neal
LSU Basketball Player
1989-92
Four-time NBA Champion

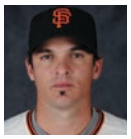
"LSU has the greatest fans. Being a hometown girl from Baton Rouge, I knew LSU always took pride in its athletic program. You always hear about Tennessee and Connecticut, but I wanted to be able to help put LSU up there on the map with them. We accomplished a lot during my time. I wouldn't change it for anything. I got to play for one of the greatest coaches in history in Coach Gunter. I got to play with a group of women that became my family."

Seimone Augustus
Guard (2002-06)
Two-time National Player of the Year
2011 LSU Athletic Hall of Famer
2011, 2013 & 2015 WNBA Champion

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

David Toms
2001 PGA Champion
and LSU Graduate

"How could you put a price tag on the experience I had at LSU? You couldn't pay me enough money to take away the College World Series championship or the things I learned from (former LSU head coach) Skip Bertman to the relationships I have with guys like (former LSU teammates) Victor Brumfield and Blair Barbier. You meet all these guys and you have lifelong friends. I could go on and on about guys I still keep in close contact with."



Ryan Theriot
LSU Baseball (1999-2001)
Two-time MLB
World Series Champion

Did You Know?

- In the 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 editions of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities."

Dr. F. King Alexander

President, LSU

Dr. F. King Alexander is the President of Louisiana State University, which enrolls more than 45,000 students and includes institutions across Louisiana. He began at LSU on June 24, 2013. During his tenure as president, the university has seen consecutive record-breaking graduating classes in terms of both size and diversity and enrollment growth across all campuses.

Prior to this appointment, Dr. Alexander was president of California State University, Long Beach (2005-2013) one of the nation's largest public universities.

During his more than seven-year tenure at California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was twice named the California State University Student Association (CSSA) "President of the Year," which represents all 23 California State Universities and its more than 440,000 students.

Prior to becoming president of California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was president of Murray State University in Kentucky (2001-05) and was a faculty member at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, where he was the director of the graduate higher education program.

A Kentucky native who grew up in north Florida, Dr. Alexander received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in higher education administration with a focus on finance and educational policy analysis, and a Master of Science degree in comparative educational studies from the University of Oxford in Oxford, England.

As a teacher and administrator, Dr. Alexander has received many honors, including the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Education Alumni Achievement Award (2002) and has research university faculty affiliations at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Center for the Study of Postsecondary Education (WISCAPE) and Cornell University Higher Education Research Institute (CHERI).

Dr. Alexander also has been asked to represent public higher education colleges and universities on numerous occasions to the United State Congress on issues of college affordability, student indebtedness, and institutional efficiency and effectiveness in efforts to address many of the growing challenges facing American higher education. He has testified before the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor & Pensions (HELP), the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, and the Advisory Committee on Student Financial Assistance, to name a few. Due to his national recognition and involvement in higher education issues, Dr. Alexander has served on numerous U.S. higher education and statewide organizational leadership boards, and remains very active in policy and planning discussions.

Dr. Alexander and his wife, Shenette, have three children: Kylie, Savannah and Madison.

Dr. Bill Demastes

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Bill Demastes, a professor of English at LSU, is in his fifth year as Faculty Athletics Representative. Dr. Demastes earned his Ph.D. in English in 1986 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a Field of Study of Drama as Genre and a specialization in 20th-Century American and British Drama. He earned his masters in English in June 1979 from the University of Georgia in Athens, where he specialized in 19th-Century American Literature.

At LSU, he served as Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 2001-04 and Director of Undergraduate Studies for the Department of English from 1999-2001 and 2010-11. He has also served as Associate Chair of the Department of English (1998-99); Director of the Master of Arts in Liberal Arts Program (1996-04); and Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of English (1992-94; 2005-06).

He was honored with the LSU Alumni Association Faculty Excellence Award in 2000, and in 2002 he won the LSU Distinguished Faculty Award. He was named in 2009 an LSU Rainmaker, which is given to the top 100 LSU Faculty. In 2010 and 2013 he received the Tiger Athletic Foundation Undergraduate Teaching Award, and in the summer of 2011, he was named the Harry Ransom Summer Fellowship recipient by the University of Texas.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, overseeing historic growth of one of the most recognized brands in all of sports. Under his leadership, LSU has one of the country's premier programs with tremendous academics and athletics success. Now in his 10th year at LSU, Alleva remains dedicated to overall excellence and providing the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community.

Alleva's strategic plan involves an unwavering investment in the future of LSU Athletics that will benefit the university for generations and create an enduring, impactful environment for student-athletes that contains the best in facilities, academic support and coaching staffs.

Alleva has expertly managed the department's finances and operations, making LSU one of the nation's top 10 programs in terms of revenue, profit, ticket sales and investment into its student-athletes and athletic endeavors. He joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008, and he was named vice chancellor in August of 2009, marking the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

In the spring of 2016, he completed a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, an appointment that affirmed his reputation as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country. Alleva has been appointed to numerous national committees, including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva made an immediate impact with a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program -- "LSU: Defined by Excellence" -- to confirm the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary enterprise. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set goals and values for the entire athletics program.

In the classroom, a total of 89 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university last year. LSU's Graduation Success Rate as reported by the NCAA remains at an all-time high with a score of 88, four points higher than the national average. Alleva's ardent dedication to academics ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that cultivates success and the development of life skills.

The implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" community outreach program fosters a relationship between the local citizens and LSU student-athletes. The Tigers in 2016-17 logged 7,048 hours in community service work across 21 sports. They played an integral role in assisting victims of the devastating flood that struck the Baton Rouge area in August 2016, helping to provide relief, rebuilding and rebirth for the community.

He has also bolstered the L-Club program to connect with former student-athletes, and he instituted the thriving "Project Graduation" plan in which former student-athletes return to LSU to earn their degrees.

On the field of play, his tenure has been distinguished by a number of significant achievements, including four 10-win seasons and 86 total victories by the football team. The Tigers have played in a bowl game in each of his nine gridiron seasons, and LSU has finished in the Top 20 seven times in that period. LSU under Alleva's leadership has claimed the 2009 baseball national championship and four College World Series berths, the 2015 men's golf national championship, two women's basketball Sweet 16 appearances, five gymnastics Super Six berths, four softball College World Series appearances and 18 NCAA Top 5 finishes indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

The Tigers in the past nine seasons have earned 42 individual NCAA championships in the sports of men's and women's track and field, gymnastics, men's golf and women's golf. LSU has captured 16 Southeastern Conference team championships, and the Tigers have won 115 individual SEC titles during Alleva's term.

LSU enjoyed another banner year in 2016-17, as the school produced four Top 5 NCAA finishes and earned an outstanding No. 18 national ranking in the annual Learfield Directors' Cup, which measures the overall strength of collegiate athletic programs. Fourteen LSU teams competed in an NCAA championship event, and the Tigers finished in the Top 10 in eight sports.

Alleva's vision keeps LSU among the nation's leaders in facilities, and he is devoted to enhancing the experiences of fans at each of the Fighting Tigers' venues. Tiger Stadium is currently undergoing a significant upgrade in its concessions and restroom facilities, and this summer the largest center-hung video board in college basketball was installed in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

Last year, LSU unveiled two state-of-the-art venues — a Gymnastics Practice Facility and a Tennis Center featuring both indoor and outdoor courts — and construction is scheduled to begin this year on a Nutrition Center. An addition to the Football Operations Center's weight training area opened in August 2016, providing student-athletes with one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the world.

Under Alleva's direction, LSU in the fall of 2014 opened the expansion of the South End Zone of Tiger Stadium -- a project that added premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards -- continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Since 2010, he has executed an aggressive campaign to preserve and enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium that has included the installation of new windows, lighting systems, gating systems, and championship plazas.

Alleva supervised a major renovation to the University Club golf course that allows the LSU golf teams to play on one of the most challenging courses in the country. An overhaul of the LSU soccer facility has converted the stadium into fan-friendly venue, and the track and field program has received a new running surface in Bernie Moore Stadium and extensive renovations to its indoor facility.

An innovator with bold ideas that benefit Greater Baton Rouge, he was instrumental in the planning of Bayou Country Superfest, a three-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium from 2010 through 2016. The event attracted over 100,000 visitors each year and made a tremendous economic impact upon the community.

He became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, who earned his bachelor's degree in finance from Lehigh in 1975, was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. He also played on the baseball team and served as a graduate assistant football coach, earning an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, he played a key role in the Durham, N.C. sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham nearly 30 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny, and five grandchildren.

Nall is married to husband Slater and they have two daughters; Kendall and Olivia.

ON THE PROWL
Mike the Tiger was ranked by ESPN as the best mascot in the SEC. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana, located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

MIKE THE TIGER

HISTORY OF MIKE

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season.

The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was humanely euthanized on Oct. 11, 2016 after a four-month battle with cancer. He was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Indiana in Idaville, Indiana, a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

For more than 50 years, Mike rode through Tiger Stadium in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders before home games. Before the field parade, Mike's trailer was parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast corner of the stadium. Opposing players were forced to pass Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

In the mid-1980s, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Trainer and namesake Mike Chambers with Mike I housed in City Park Zoo.

Mike VII

MIKE'S HABITAT
In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet with lush foliage, a large Live Oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire LSU campus. This spectacular habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

SNEAUX DAY
On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

1936-1956
MIKE I
The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

1956-1958
MIKE II
The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

1958-1976
MIKE III
Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

1976-1990
MIKE IV
Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla, on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

1990-2007
MIKE V
Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

2007-2016
MIKE VI
Mike VI arrived on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played Virginia Tech. On Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and a 2011 SEC championship and perfect regular season. Mike VI was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer in May 2016 and underwent first-of-its-kind radiation treatment He was humanely euthanized on Oct. 11, 2016 at the age of 11 after a four-month battle with cancer.

2017-present
MIKE VII
On the first day of the fall 2017 semester at LSU, Mike VII officially began his reign on Monday, August 21. Known as "Harvey" when he arrived on campus on August 15, Mike VII was housed in the night house of the tiger habitat. The 11-month-old, Siberian-Bengal male tiger was quarantined and observed by LSU veterinarians to ensure that he was healthy and a good fit for LSU.

LSU Athletics - Championship Legacy

THE NATION'S ELITE TEAMS

Gymnastics
The LSU gymnastics team compiled one of the most dominant seasons in school history with a 34-2 record and sweep of the Southeastern Conference regulars season and tournament titles. After advancing to the NCAA Championships with its fifth-straight NCAA Regional title, the Tigers posted the highest team score ever at an NCAA meet in Semifinal II on April 14, 2017. Ashleigh Gnat, Kennedi Edney and Sarah Finnegan also took home NCAA individual titles on floor, vault and bars. With the win, Finnegan became the first bars champion in program history. In its sixth NCAA Super Six appearance, LSU made a furious comeback in the final rotation to roar into second place finish and finish as the National Runner-Up for a second-straight season. Down by .150 heading into the final rotation, the Tigers' beam lineup posted an incredible score of 49.725 to tie for the best in school history and the highest for any team at an NCAA Championship.

Baseball
LSU finished with a consensus No. 2 ranking in the final college baseball polls, capping a tremendous season for the Tigers, who posted a 52-20 overall record and advanced to the College World Series Finals. LSU won five championships in 2017 - the Tigers were SEC regular-season champions, SEC Western Division champions, SEC Tournament champions, NCAA Regional champions and NCAA Super Regional champions.

Softball
The LSU softball team made history as the squad advanced to the Women's College World Series for the third-straight time and fourth overall under head coach Beth Torina. The Tigers fought off elimination in the NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional in Tallahassee when the team took down No. 4 Florida State and its 36-game home win streak to advance to Oklahoma City.

Men's Golf
The LSU men's golf team earned a ninth-place team finish at the 2017 NCAA Championships. The Tigers earned a fourth-straight top-10 finish for the third time in school history. LSU also won a school single-season record six tournament titles and finished the season ranked as the No. 3 team by GolfWeek/Sagarin Performance Index. Sam Burns enjoyed the most prolific season in school history as the NCAA Division I Jack Nicklaus National Player of the Year

Beach Volleyball
The 2017 campaign was one for the record books as the LSU beach volleyball team compiled its best season to date, finishing with an impressive 27-8 overall record en route to earning its first-ever berth at the NCAA Championships. Over the course of the season, LSU knocked off 10 ranked opponents and rattled off 23-straight wins to mark the third longest winning streak in LSU athletics history.

ELITE STUDENT-ATHLETES

Ashleigh Gnat
Gymnastics
Ashleigh Gnat finished one of the most successful careers in school history by winning the NCAA floor title with a 9.9625 during Semifinal II. During her senior season, Gnat was named the Southeastern Conference Specialist of the Year and NACGC Central Region Gymnast of the Year. The Lake Mary, Florida native was also selected as the winner of the 2017 AAI Award. Gnat finished her career as a four-time SEC Champion and 17-time All-American.

Leonard Fournette
Fotoball

He finished his career No. 2 in school history in all-purpose yards per game (155.7), No. 3 in overall touchdowns (42), and No. 4 in rushing touchdowns (40) and all-purpose yards (4,981). Overall, Fournette set or tied a total of 23 school records during his career.

Greg Deichmann
Baseball
Junior rightfielder Greg Deichmann earned 2017 first-team All-America honors after hitting .308 with team highs of 19 homers and 73 RBI. His home run total was the highest by an LSU player since the 2010 season. Deichmann finished No. 2 in the Southeastern Conference in RBI, and he was No. 3 in the league in home runs. Deichmann, who was also voted first-team All-SEC, was selected in the second round of the 2017 MLB Draft by the Oakland Athletics.

Sahvanna Jaquish
Softball
Sahvanna Jaquish became the first player in LSU softball history to earn All-America honors all four years and the 33rd in the history of the sport when she earned the distinction in 2017. Jaquish set the LSU career RBI record and finished in the NCAA top-10 list with 268. The senior hit .331 during the 2017 season and also earned 62 walks for the most in a single season in school history.

Mikiah Brisco
Track and Field
Junior Mikiah Brisco took down Oregon's heavily-favored Deajah Stevens on her home track at Hayward Field for the title of NCAA Champion in the women's 100-meter dash as she capped a brilliant 2017 season with a personal-best time of 10.96 seconds in the national final. Brisco, an eight-time All-American in her LSU career, became the seventh Lady Tiger in history and the first in nine years to win the NCAA 100-meter title in Eugene last June. Brisco was also the leadoff leg of LSU's collegiate-record-setting 4x100-meter relay team in 2017 as she teamed with Kortnei Johnson, Jada Martin and Aleia Hobbs for the fastest time in NCAA history at 42.12 for their seasonal best.

Sam Burns
Golf
An in-state product from Shreveport, Louisiana, Sam Burns enjoyed the most prolific season by an LSU golfer in program history in 2016-17 as he ended his sophomore campaign as the NCAA Division I Jack Nicklaus National Player of the Year as the No. 1 player in college golf. Burns claimed four tournament titles and earned 14 top-10 finishes en route to being named a PING First-Team All-American and the SEC Player of the Year in 2017 while smashing LSU's single-season scoring record with a 70.05 scoring average in his 15 appearances. He was the catalyst in the Tigers taking home a fourth-straight top-10 team finish at the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Championships with a ninth-place.

Juan Celaya-Hernandez
Swimming and Diving
In just his first year on campus, Juan Celaya-Hernandez posted one of the most impressive seasons in LSU diving history, shattering all three school records on both springboards and platform at the SEC Championships. Celaya-Hernandez was crowned SEC champion on platform and also picked up two silver medals on one and three-meter. At the NCAA Championships, Celaya-Hernandez received All-America honors, earning first-team recognition on three-meter following a third-place finish and honorable mention accolades on one-meter, placing ninth overall in the nation. A native of Mexico, Celaya-Hernandez was also selected as the SEC Freshman Diver of the Year and made the All-Freshman squad.

Jade Lewis
Tennis
Freshman Jade Lewis was named an ITA Singles All-American and compiled a 17-7 singles record as LSU's court one player with 11 wins over ranked opponents. She earned the highest-ranked win by a freshman in school history over No. 4 Astra Sharma of Vanderbilt and clinched the highest-ranked win in program history over No. 5 Auburn by defeating No. 29 Alizee Michaud in straight sets. Lewis was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team and First Team All-SEC as well as SEC Co-Freshman of the Year. Lewis also received Rookie of the Year and Player to Watch honors from the Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media members are encouraged to apply for season credentials at the beginning of the season. A 2018 season media credential provides access to the press box at Tiger Park and all of its working media areas.

For individual games, requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance by contacting Chelsey Chamberlain at cchamberlain@lsu.edu in the LSU Sports Information Office.

Passes may be picked up starting 60 minutes prior to first pitch at the Media Will Call area located outside the Tiger Park Ticket Office.

VISITING RADIO

A phone line is located inside the press box for visiting radio broadcasts for Southeastern Conference opponents. Please inform SID Chelsey Chamberlain if you wish to broadcast your game on the radio.

GAME INFORMATION

Each game day media will be provided with a program that includes updated notes, statisics and wireless internet information for the press box at Tiger Park.

Final box score and stat books which includes play-by-play will be available shortly following each game.

POST GAME INTERVIEWS

Interviews with players and coaches are done on the field post game after the team's 10-minute cooling off period following the day's final game. Please inform SID Chelsey Chamberlain if you need to request a specific player.

No interviews will be held between games of a doubleheader or after the first game of tournament play.

COVERING PRACTICES

LSU softball practices generally range from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at Tiger Park. Most practice sessions are open to the media but are subject to change. During the season, the Tigers have most Mondays off from practice.

Interviews with coaches and players are held before practice based on player class schedules and team travel.

Advance notice, preferably 24 hours, is needed for all interview requests. Please schedule all interviews by contacting SID Chelsey Chamberlain at (225) 317-5450 or cchamberlain@lsu.edu.

SEC MEDIA INFORMATION

Jill Skotarczak is the softball media relations contact for the Southeastern Conference. She can be reached at jskotarczak@sec.org or via phone at (205) 458-3000.

Each Tuesday, the league will name a Player of the Week, a Pitcher of the Week and a Freshman of the Week throughout the 2018 season.

The SEC Website, SECSports.go.com, can be accessed 24/7/365 to access updated standings, statistics and notes.

LSU SOFTBALL ON THE RADIO

The LSU Sports Radio Network gives Tiger softball one of the most comprehensive audiences across the nation. As Tiger softball begins its 22nd season of extensive radio coverage, the LSU Sports Radio Network is scheduled to carry 30 regular games which includes all of the team's 24 SEC contests.

The LSU Sports Radio Network brings Tiger softball to its many fans with broadcasts in the Baton Rouge area on Talk 107.3 FM.

Patrick Wright, the voice of Tiger softball for the previous 22 seasons, will provide all of the play-by-play action. Wright also is the voice of LSU women's basketball team and serves as one of the locker room reporters for radio broadcasts of LSU football games.

The LSU Sports Radio Network also will cover all of the Tigers postseason games from the SEC and NCAA Tournaments.

LSU SOFTBALL ON THE INTERNET

The LSU softball team was one of the first collegiate softball teams to have its games broadcast over the internet. All softball broadcasts can be heard for free at LSUsports.net/live.

LSU SOFTBALL ON TELEVISION

LSU softball will have 13 games televised during the 2018 season, which is the most in program history.

Over 70 Southeastern Conference Softball games will be televised on the network, with at least one game of each series being covered in some way when you include the digital tier of SEC Network+.

For the eighth consecutive season, all games of the SEC Tournament also will be televised by the ESPN family of networks. The four-day tournament will be hosted by Missouri May 9-12 in Columbia, Missouri. The first eight games of the tournament will be televised live on the SEC Network, with the semifinals moving to ESPNU and the finals on ESPN.
